

simple is beautiful

Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication.
Leonardo da Vinci

We are Nude

We live in a confusing world; too many choices, too many products, too much 'noise'.

Nude believes things can be different; the remedy simple.

Simple is beautiful.
Simple is pure, clear, transparent.
Simple is useable, clean, uncluttered.
Simple is convenient, reliable, timeless.

Simple is all of these things, and also the reason things are so rarely simple.

Because designing and making something simple is not as simple as it seems.

Simplicity means caring enough to consider actual needs before refining them to their essence -nothing more, nothing less, the final object easy to understand, use and live with.

This means getting closer to the user in order to determine where less equals more, and form most perfectly meets function; where everything is always in the right place at the right time.

This idea of simplicity is the guiding principle behind Nude.

It is reflected in our design-aesthetic, our mind-set and culture.

The result is our promise reflected in glass.

Nude... simple is beautiful.

The Signature Collections

The Signature Collections are an on-going dialogue between creative genius, exquisite materials and glass.

Nude offer the platform, process, craftsmen and furnace.

The design is manifested by the master (the collaborating partner), who brings their personal value to the process.

The Nude Signature Collections push the boundaries of what's achievable, questioning the fundamental possibility of things.

In doing so they create the new.

Always simple.

Always Nude.

Signature

Ron Arad

An icon as an architect and industrial designer, Ron Arad ignores the notion of formal disciplines and boundaries. He is a creator in the purest sense, his portfolio of work a testament to his creative genius and free spirit.

He defines design as, 'the act of one imposing one's will on materials to perform a function.' He is a constant innovator, questioning, challenging, re-thinking and reinterpreting the objects that surround our daily lives.

The Ron Arad Signature Collection for Nude includes iconic pieces such as the 'DecanteRing', 'Red or White?' and 'Wine Party', all masterfully hand-crafted in lead-free crystal glass.

For me design is to do something that did not exist before. Ideas should serve us; we shouldn't serve the ideas.

*Like this glass collection we have created. People always ask: Form or function?
They are not at war with each other;
they work together.*

As someone once said: 'Wine is just a conversation waiting to happen,' and it is in that spirit the DecanteRing exists. A symmetrical cylinder of perfectly-blown glass, this beautiful artefact enables the wine to breathe properly, while letting light and movement play around the liquid, a constant reminder of its intoxicating properties. The degree of craftsmanship involved is extraordinary, the glass cut and polished to perfection.

A flirtatious range including a decanter, jug and two glasses. The way the glass leans, mirrors the way people bend closer to hear conversation or whisper a secret. The shape of the glass also makes reference to the tipsy-like state a party engenders. Also note the upside-down wine glasses. No need to waste time when moving from white to red; a twist of the wrist and one can proceed uninterrupted.

Ingenious, playful, intuitive and practical, the Wine Party range is a series of glasses designed for the party experience. Their precisely-weighted stems allow them to be rested on surfaces, but also easily slipped into a pocket or purse. Hands are freed for more important purposes: greeting, rejecting, cajoling or gesticulating. For those reluctant to let go of their glass, the soft curve of the stem fits like a glove.

Nigel Coates

Nigel Coates is one of the UK's most creative thinkers, architects and educators. He is the designer of everything from ground-breaking restaurant and retail interiors to museum extensions in London, and high-end products for grand European marques, all informed by a sensual and organic quality and a fluidity of line. He has written with unbridled imagination about what cities could be, and fiercely defends the idea that function and aesthetics can happily co-exist.

He divides his time between the UK and Tuscany. It is this close relationship with Tuscany, and its grand wines, which has directly informed his first collection for Nude.

Nude is a premium brand with a strong design sensibility, so I'm proud to be part of it. And it's interesting to work in a context where there's no looking back. Nude is very much about the here and now.

GLASS IS TOMORROW

A quartet of glasses designed by the always stylish Englishman Nigel Coates. The selection, like the designer himself, is confident, charming, yet eminently usable. The hand-blown tumbler is cleverly ridged, almost inviting the user to hold it in their hand. The wine glasses are also extremely tactile. The champagne glass is as charming as a cocktail dress and demands to be admired. At once playful yet refined, Heads Up is a marvellously individual and memorable range.

The double curve of the design plays with the light, the thick base of each item creating the sense that each of the pieces is floating in air.

Each item incorporates the same element of sensuousness and light, the bowls a perfect balance of the masculine and feminine.

Memento Mori, from the Latin 'Remember you will die,' is less a doom-laden prophecy, but instead an inducement to live every day to the full, as if it might be your last.

In homage to the idea, the NUDE Memento Mori collection is a series of exquisitely crafted human skulls in lead-free crystal glass, created by two dynamic designers.

Ali Bakova is a leading light in design education in Istanbul, working in an environment where the industrial meets the aesthetic. His work is both playful yet functional, mixing the classic with Pop culture, as evidenced when he was asked what inspired his Memento Mori collection:

"First I thought of Hamlet's famous soliloquy, 'To be or not to be.' But second, I thought of the film 'Indiana Jones & the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull.'"

Ali Bakova

The second designer working on the Memento Mori collection, Erdem Akan, is an energetic exponent of contemporary design, creating interiors, products and exhibitions that combine East with West, old with new.

His Punk Rock roots inform his creativity, combining attitude with humour, personality with style.

"I create things for modern living. I'm not nostalgic or futuristic.
I'm interested in the right now."

Erdem Akan

Exquisitely sculptured glass ornament designed by Istanbul-based Ali Bakova. Shaped as the top half of a human skull, the ornaments rest on a flat base. They come in jet black, crystal clear, and opaque white glass.

The pieces come in two sizes, offering a bold or subtle addition to any desk or bookshelf.

The glass is cut in sharp prismatic strokes, reflecting the light in a powerful way.

They are iconic items, and the centrepiece of the NUDE Memento Mori collection.

The skulls act as a constant reminder of our mortality, and an inspiration to live life to the full, making the most of every moment we have.

Inspired by his Punk Rock roots, Erdem Akan has always been keen to mix the dramatic with the playful. While respecting the beautifully macabre aspect of the human skull, he chooses to place it on its side - as if sleeping - while at the same time making it useful. It's a bold statement, full of wit and attitude. The skull acts as a bowl, and what you decide to put in it - a simple flower, coloured candies, pens and pencils - allows you to make your own statement about life... and death. The skulls come in three iterations of glass: smoke, opaque white, and jet black, each one providing a striking addition to any room.

*Making the simple complicated is commonplace;
making the complicated simple... That's creativity.*

Playful and modern, these two Bubble vases in either soft gray or blue have a funky and relaxed air to them. Made by a master blower, they are free shapes - not from a mould - so not one of them will ever be the same.

An innovative range comprising of two elegant crystal vases and two bowls all with an arresting copper base. At once solid yet ethereal, the vases seem to disappear as they reach their apex, allowing the contents to take over the drama. The base suggests the vases are separated into three layers - metal, liquid, air - creating superb visual impact. The shorter of the two vases allows a fuller bouquet of flowers, the sweep of the glass rising from the base mimicking the very growth of a flower itself.

The second Contour collection is a limited edition of two vases and two bowls. Similar in design to their counterparts in the range, they differ in that they have a lighter gold base. This creates a more liquid sense to the products, the gold more reflective, the inner and outer patina contrasting slightly, adding a feeling of mystery and depth. Effortlessly elegant, the vases have a softly-rounded base, offering a receptacle for long or short stemmed flowers.

The wide-profiled bowls can be used as table displays or for more functional purposes at meal times. All in all, a welcome addition to the range.

A play on the term Demi John - the traditional French jug used to ferment wine - these two brushed-grey vases can be used as ornaments, or to hold a single flower. The XL version is a floor standing item, the smaller sized for a windowsill or bookshelf. Using them to refract light adds a startling sense of drama to any home.

The Eden that comes in two sizes, is an exquisitely manufactured glass terrarium - a miniature garden. Lying atop a bowl of moulded concrete (is a substance that lies at the heart of the Nude ethos, being that it is simple yet graphically strong), the Eden can be used for planting all year round. For those less green-fingered, it also makes a beautiful candle-feature for both indoors and out.

A collection of three bowls ingeniously designed to replicate the shape of a lily when placed together. The hand-blown crystal is perfectly clear with an exquisitely fine finish. All three items are gently curved, the bowl suggesting the cupping of hands as it sweeps towards the precisely cut rim. As the bowls become smaller they also become deeper and are thus tailored to suit a variety of contents. Simple but dramatic, a wonderful selection for any table. The Lily line can be bought as a set or individually.

Because of the method by which these vases are made, not one of them is exactly the same. Hand blown, half the glass is coloured in either pink, white or blue. The bottom half of the vase remains clear in order to reveal its contents. Delightful for use all around the home.

Like a Zen master, the Magnolia range instills a sense of the moment, and can be mixed and matched in a multitude of ways. Perfect for all around the home.

Incorporating the same Zen-like appeal of their larger brothers and sisters in the range, the 2016 Magnolia Mini collection comes in four new sizes. They are two versions: steel blue, and a soft white opaque.

Essentially decorative, the Minis add a splash of character and style to any worktop, book shelf or side table.

A series of sleek table top serving bowls in a variety of colours and sizes. The bowls perfectly marry the masculine and feminine with their crisp rim and velvety curves. The bottom of each bowl slopes to a soft base, insinuating a lightness to the item, as if floating on air. The inky black version is distinctly powerful, the opal gray more gently luminescent.

GLASS IS

From the designer Tamer Nakışçı this trio of vases are made in an extraordinary clear yet corrugated glass. The rippled effect creates an optical illusion reflecting the different colours of the contents in an almost magical way. Flowers particularly are beautifully presented in these vases, the undulation blurring the stems, bringing into focus the colour of the petals. However the wider versions are also suited to storing newspapers, books or magazines. Simple but unique, these items works perfectly both in a domestic and professional environment.

An ingenious item made of either sapphire-blue or clear crystal glass, Moods is a series of solid hand-blown ornaments beautifully inscribed with the features of a human face. They are smooth to the touch, making them a marvellous item to hold in the hand. However, depending on which way you choose to position the glass, the Mood can either be happy or sad. Use as a warning or playful reminder, or simply as a method of reflecting the way you feel, Moods is a delightful gift for all ages.

A large family of vases, the glass Mono Boxes' simplicity allow maximum enjoyment of whatever you choose to put in them. Whether an aquarium, an array of stones, or desert plants, the clarity of the surface brilliantly enhances the contents. The larger vases in blue feel almost liquid. An art piece in themselves they can also be employed for multiple uses, such as a punch bowl or ice bucket. The more modest sized vases are perfect for fruit or candies. The smallest in the range is wonderful for all manner of items: jewellery, makeup, tissues, cotton wool. They make a perfect gift, not only for others but yourself. The ones in opal grey work brilliantly on an office desk. As a receptacle for business cards, usb sticks, paper clips, rubber bands, they are a simple way of clearing clutter while at the same time, making a stylish statement.

A sophisticated yet witty piece of craftsmanship, the Arch whisky bottle, a set of two glasses, and a matching bowl, are a group of perfectly balanced items that seem to defy logic but sit solidly on any surface. The subtle curvature of the glass base reflects the delightful swirl of a single malt, creating a sense of energy to an activity often perceived to be placid. The pieces have a subtle interlocking design that allows them to fit together imaginatively.

An original line of glassware created by award winning Turkish designer, Ali Bakova, the range begins with a highball glass for mixed drinks. The shorter version makes a perfect tumbler. Funkier than its brother, it feels solid in the hand, but still offers a radical and imaginative option.

A set of five items in clear crystal glass, the Neo range includes two well-balanced glasses, one for long drinks, the other for whisky. There is also a long-stemmed champagne glass, and a crisply-defined wine glass.

To complete the set, NUDE has created a matching mini-bowl, perfect for Tapas, nuts or dips.

Each item is gently flared outwards towards the rim, the glass softly-bevelled, creating a pleasant sensation in the hand while at the same time softly refracting the light.

The name suggests mystery, but the glass is designed for someone who knows their liquor. Perfect for any spirit, these are a must-have for any serious drinker. Heavy-bottomed they feel substantial in the hand, each glass precision-sculpted to create a perfect pyramid inside its base.

Dramatic and authoritative, it is modern and sleek.

The No 9 decanter is a superb combination of masculine power and female elegance. Or perhaps it's the other way around! Either way, it's a sensational addition to any living room, an item to be cherished for years to come.

Continuing the theme of synchronicity, Nude offer a stylish matching water bottle and set of glasses in either clear or green. The glass is ribbed, almost like corduroy, creating an extraordinary tactile experience when held in the hand. The narrowing at the top of the glass also helps keep liquid cool. A stunning adornment to any table.

A water carafe in smoked grey, this has been designed for the kitchen or dining table. Each carafe comes with its own perfectly fitted glass, which also acts as a cover, preventing any unwanted invaders, especially when dining al fresco.

GLASS IS TOMORROW

An extraordinary and original piece created by the Swiss-based and award-winning designer Tomas Kral. "The two parts of the lamp are assembled together by simple rubber bands which refer to the top of a hot-air balloon. This minimal connection creates a tension sufficient to maintain the stability of the lamp, and also allows quick disassembly for changing the bulb." Light and airy, the lamp, though sturdy, seems to float.

A truly dramatic addition to any room, the Orion night light is an extraordinary piece of design. Essentially simple in its make-up, the crystal glass shade resting on a solid concrete base hails back to the Sci-Fi movies of the 1950's. The brushed surface running across the top of the glass means the light is diffused across the room, providing a soft and soothing glow perfect for bedrooms or any relaxing space.

The Smooth bedside lamp is comforting, minimal, soft, and unobtrusive. Its space-age design emits a warm glow, the feel of the lamp organic, the textures tactile. The main shade itself is made of opaque glass, contrasting effectively with the slate stone base, the matt and gloss finishes acting in harmony. Such is the skill of NUDE's glass-blowers, the density of the light gently changes as it hits different areas of the lamp. The Smooth is an endlessly fascinating thing, dreamy yet practical, simple yet unique.
